“ I used to care for Joe back in 2009 to 2012 they said they would give me a shot on this really tough case where everyone was getting fired and I met Joe and we were instant buddies he was such an amazing person!! He always made me laugh I can still hear him cussing us out and waving his arm around lol we would listen to the country countdown every Sunday on his TV.. I was only in my young 20s then and was pregnant with my daughter, Joe treated me with so much kindness and respect and even bought me gifts for my daughter ❤️ he loved giving me and Debbie and Diane a hard time lol fond memories of Sunday's in his chair sneaking out by the shed 😭😭 to hide from Diane and sneak a little smoke if ya catch my drift 😭😭 I really really cared for him. I thought of him today and found this which saddened my heart but I know Joes suffering is over and I just wanted to let everyone know that he made an impact on me and I will never forget him.. Bless you Joe!! Ur very missed!!
