“ I just heard of the passing of Mrs. Ryznar. I knew her from church and previous to that I remember when she worked at Sutton's in Royersford. I remember her beautiful long nails, which I think were her trademark. They were always impeccable. I will also miss seeing her in the first row of Sacred Heart Church where she was seated every Sunday. She was a beautiful lady and will be missed.

“ I am so sorry to learn of your loss of your wonderful mother. She was also something of a mother to some neighborhood 'children', and I was one of them. I last saw her at Dads' funeral, and I smiled when I saw her, always feeling happy to see her. Cheerful and never judged anyone. MRT

“ Class of 68 - Kenny. Your mother was ALWAYS a shining light whenever I saw her. Her positive attitude was only topped by her lovely manicures. To say she was a colorful person puts it into perspective - a kind word for all. What wonderful memories I have of chatting with her. Please accept our condolences. She will be missed here in the Spring Ford area.

“ Dear Brenda, The bible teaches to you to "honor your Mother & Father". I must say you set a great example--effortlessly & adoringly. I watched as you stood strong with lots of love, care and concern for your Mom Josie, over the years--especially within the last year while she was ill...I can guess God is well pleased with you Brenda. Be assured now, though, that Ms Josie is at peace. Hang in there...if you need me, you know I'll be there, God Bless, Jenn

I know she loved me in her own special way as I loved her. May God bring you the measure of comfort you will need as these days will be filled with longing for your mom. “ Sooooo sorry to hear of Josies death. I had no idea she was sick. What a nice and comical lady she was. I grew up with Josie giving my mom advice that made sense for us kids as teenagers. I hope the family is doing well. My condolences. Jackie
