Joyce Marie Cecilia (Kincaid) Gurkovic, age 87, of Orlando, Florida, formerly of Newtown Square, Pennsylvania, passed away on Thursday, March 21, 2019 in Cornerstone Hospice at Orlando Health, surrounded by her loving family. Born on August 7, 1931 in Rutherford, New Jersey, she was the only child of the late Dudley and Marion (Briggs) Kincaid.

Joyce spent her early years in Rutherford, N.J., where she was a parish member with her family and attended St. Mary's school. Her family moved to Drexel Hill, Pa where she was a member of St. Charles Parish and attended St. Charles school. Joyce graduated from Notre Dame High School in 1949 (Moyland) Media, Pa. While raising her family she put herself through nursing school and earned an LPN degree.

Joyce was extremely devoted to her family. She also had a passion for saving stray animals, sheltering and caring for them. After retirement and moving to Florida to help care for her grandchildren she volunteered at The Christian Service Center, helping those in need. Joyce was a warm caring soul, her grandchildren will say just enough sass and plenty of love. Joyce will be missed dearly and remembered fondly by many.
