“ Alex, Seth and family, I know that Joyce's passing has created a huge void in your lives. But each time you look at the sky and see the stars remember that she & Anastasia are looking down at you. God has a plan for each of us and although we may not know or recognize it now, someday it will all make sense. Be thankful for the time you shared together, cherish the memories and continue to share the love Joyce instilled in each of you. Stay strong for each other and at the end of the day thank God for the blessing of having had Joyce in your life. mi
