

Julia (Elder) Wofford

December 27, 1944 - June 26, 2015

Julia (Elder) Wofford, age 70, wife of James M. Wofford, of North Coventry, passed away on Friday, June 26, 2015 in the Pottstown Memorial Medical Center. Born in Athens, GA, she was a daughter of the late Frank and Dorothy Elder.

Mrs. Wofford was a member of the Valley Forge Baptist Temple in Collegeville, where she worked in the library and sang in the choir. Most recently, she worked in the mortgage department at Harleysville National Bank, and had done notary work for the past 35 years. A loving mother and grandmother, Mrs. Wofford enjoyed playing the clarinet and crocheting, making many items for her family members. She was a foodie who knew the best restaurants, and her laugh will forever be remembered.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Wofford is survived by three children, Andrea (Isbell) Sanders, wife of Craig of West Point, GA, Deanne (Wofford) Willing, wife of Jeremy of Boyertown, PA, and Chris J. Wofford, husband of Alicia of North Coventry; and eight grandchildren.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend her funeral service at the Valley Forge Baptist Temple, 616 South Trappe Road, Collegeville, PA 19426 on Wednesday, July 1, 2015 at 11:00 AM. Officiating will be the Rev. Scott E. Wendal. Burial will follow in the Limerick Garden of Memories. A visitation will take place in the church on Wednesday from 9:00-10:45 AM. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Julia Wofford Memorial Fund, c/o Phoenixville Federal Bank and Trust, 70 N. Lewis Road, Royersford, PA 19468 to help with funeral expenses. Arrangements are being handled by the Cattermole-Klotzbach Funeral Home, 600 Washington Street, Royersford, PA. Condolences may be offered online by visiting www.RoyersfordFuneralHome.com.

A wonderful lady, a spiritual warrior, and a true friend who was always there for AJ and I every time we met. She will be missed and we are diminished by her loss. But we rejoice at her homecoming!
