

Kanta J. Chauhan

December 28, 1947 - November 28, 2021

Kanta "Kirti" J. Chauhan, 73, of Phoenixville, passed away at Phoenixville Hospital on Sunday, November 28, 2021. Born in Baroda, Gujarat, India, she was the daughter of the late Prabhudas B. Gohil and Shantaben P. Gohil. She was the wife of Jay Chauhan, with whom she shared 50 years of marriage.

Kanta received her Bachelor's and Master's of Art in Hindi from The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. On November 23, 1971 Kanta moved to the United States. She married Jay Chauhan on November 28, 1971 in a Hindu Ceremony at a friend's home. Kanta worked for 40 years at a variety of companies including General Electric, Smith Kline Clinical Lab, and Quest Diagnostics.

In her free time Kirti enjoyed spending time with grandchildren, reading, listening to Indian music, visiting the Hindu Temple, and playing cards. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and sister, who will be immensely missed.

In addition to her husband of 50 years, Jay Chauhan, she is survived by her children; Aatosh J. Chauhan, husband of Bonnie, Sonal J. Forte, wife of Andre, brothers; Narendra P. Gohil, husband of Hansa, Jayanti P. Gohil, husband of Nayana, Kamlesh P. Gohil, Yogesh P. Gohil, and her grandchildren; Jaisil, Ethan, and Addison. She was preceded in death by her son Meeten J. Chauhan.

A viewing will be held at Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home on Sunday, December 5, 2021 from 11:30am-12pm. A funeral ceremony will begin at 12pm.
