

Karen Ann Haraczka

March 22, 1958 - September 25, 2025

Karen Ann Haraczka, age 67, Wife of Stanley Haraczka Sr. for 48 years of Royersford, Pennsylvania, passed away on Thursday, September 25, 2025. Born in Pottstown, she was the daughter of Florence (Skwatt) and Francis Gallagher.

Karen was a graduate of St. Pius High School. She then started working at the Spring-Ford Knitting Company and eventually started serving at the Spring-City Hotel. After spending several years, she started at Spring-Ford Country Club where she worked for over 30 years, as a server and bartender, and would eventually fully retire in 2024. Karen was a devout Catholic.

When she was not working or taking care of her three sons, she enjoyed spending hours in her garden tending to her roses and many flowers. Karen loved the beach and would take as many opportunities as she could to walk along the beach and collect shells with her family. She also enjoyed watching her children play baseball and would attend any game she could. She loved the Phillies and Eagles and always was a great partner to watch games with.

She is survived by her loving husband, Stanley Haraczka Sr., her children, Stanley Jr. Haraczka, Eric Haraczka, Andrew Haraczka, her grandson Tyler Haraczka, and her siblings Elaine, Pat, Joan, Kathy, Sandy, and Frank. She was preceded in death by her parents Francis Gallagher and Florence

(Skwatt).

Relatives and friends are invited to attend her funeral service at Sacred Heart Church, 838 Walnut St, Royersford, PA 19468 on Thursday, October 2, 2025 at 11AM. Officiating will be Fr. Gorka. Burial will be Private. Friends will be received from 9:00 AM-10:30 AM at Cattermole-Klotzbach Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers Memorial Contributions may be made to ALS United - Mid-Atlantic. Arrangements are being handled by the Cattermole - Klotzbach Funeral Home. Condolences may be offered online at www.RoyersfordFuneralHome.com.

“ My family is a member of SFCC for about the last 11 years or so. I will always remember Karen as she always greeted me with a hug when we saw each other. She had a great laugh, could tell a story, was a great listener and I'll always remember her. I know she is with us always and I'll pray for her husband and family. She spoke of all of you each time.

“ We met our freshman year at St. PIUS. Karen and Dianne D came from Sacrade Heart and I from StEleanors we became friends we wore colors stickers and platforms shoes. We had so much fun in school and out. Taking the bus to the mall and when I got a car we would cruise high street .I taught her to drive stick stick shift so I didn't have to drive all the time We did some wild and crazy things .we had so much fun back in those days and laugh boy did we laugh I can still remember her infections laugh And that's what I remember the most her laugh I can still hear her laugh.
