“ David & Alexis; It's been awhile since the early pageant days of meeting you, but your whole family was so friendly and I was so sad to hear Karen was ill. You've always managed to have a smile on your face, and I hope your memories will help bring a smile back to you. I can't imagine how difficult this is, but know that you're in our prayers for strength and guidance. I hope God and your faith will get you through this difficult time. Karen spent Christmas with Jesus and will forever be your special angel. God Bless both of you....., and again I'm very sorry for your loss, Karen was a very special lady.

“ To The Family of Karen, My prayers go out to you and your family at this time of sorrow. May God give you strength. Keep the faith and God is always there sitting with you. Karen was always nice when she came in to The MRI Center. What an angel she will be sitting right near The Lord. Once again keep the faith and God will bring you through. Hold God unchanging Hand, Stephanie Cole

“ Our deepest condolences to you during this difficult time Dave, Alexis and Karen's entire family. Karen's love and devotion to Alexis was evident as she volunteered countless hours on the side of the Villa Maria pool. She was a very caring and giving person. You will be in our prayers and we hope that over time your memories will help heal your broken hearts.

“ Mr. Reavill and Alexis, My deepest sympathy goes out to you during this hard time. Alexis know that you are not alone and if you ever need anything or want to just talk, I am here for you. Your mom will continue to watch over you and she will never be forgotten. I remember her happiness on the pool deck and her helpfulness towards others. Please know you and your family are in my prayers. Love, Kelly

“ Alexis, u were the joy of your mom's world. She wished for you since we were young girls, doing what you do. Me, your mom. Aunt JoAnn, Sandy....we all had the same dreams...we have all been blessed. Our dreams have came true with children we are proud of! Karen, can't be here now but she is healthy and wise seeing your future and ours out of faithful eyes. Be faithful, Alexis. Too David, so many memories.....when you and Karen carried Alexis at only two or three months, you carried her pocketbook to dinner at the Buck, while my sick baby sarah was safe at home sleeping with my mom, so that we could have a festive holiday dinner together. A special moment! David. you held her close. You held her tight. You are a hero! I love you all!!! Kar, you deserve this rest. I'll see you when I get there....I promise.

“ Dear ALexis, I am truly sorry for the loss of you mother. She was always so nice and cheerful. I know you are sad and will miss your mother for years to come, but you are a strong and independant person, and I know you will one day be able to be the happy girl you always have been. Your mother's spirit will forever watch over you and keep you safe through the remainder of your life.

“ God needed another angel to sing in His choir on Christmas Eve. Karen was the one to get the angels organized. She was very busy showing them all her best dance moves and proper posture from her Eagles Cheerleading days. What fond memories we have of her as a young girl. She was so much fun! She was such a fighter all through her illness. May she rest in peace. Sincerest sympathy to all her family.
