“ Dear Laudermilch Family,

We just wanted to let you know how sorry we are to hear about your terrible loss.

We are keeping you and baby Kasey in our prayers.

(PS: Debbie, you were a Kindergarten teacher to my daughter Gabby several years ago. God Bless you!)

“ Debbie and Jim, No words I offer to you will make this time less difficult. Know that I am always here for you and your family. My thoughts and prayers go out to your entire family, including Nathan at this difficult time. Deb, please call me when you are ready. I send you a hug and cry many tears for Kasey. I laugh, when I think back to you, Kerri and I standing in the hallway picking out names for Kasey. She missed out on a beautiful life to share in the Laurdermilch family, but know she is looking down on you, watching over you. Find peace, stay strong, as I know you are and remember all you family and friends are here for you. L^Ove you, Carolyn A.

“ Dear Debra,
I read about the passing of Kasey in our local paper. I do not know you but our mother's hearts are connected. Your pain is inconceivable. I will keep Kasey and your family in my prayers. Trust that time will help heal your pain and someday you will be reunited with your Angel Kasey.
God Bless You.

“ Dear Debbie, Jim, and Nathan,

I know no words can be said that will make this pain go away in your hearts, but if a hug could take it all away from you, I would give you the greatest of all hugs.

It is sometimes beyond our reasoning just why certain events take place and change the way things "should have been", but it encourages us to appreciate and accept all that God has put in our path in our journey through life. My fond memories will be the joy she brought to your lives during her days kept safe and the beautiful name you gave her.

May Kasey Ella be that glorious angel beside you encouraging you to go on and remember her as your precious little baby girl with the beautiful light brown hair.

My thoughts and prayers are with you. If you need anything, please know that I am here. Love you.

“ *Debbie and Family,
My family is so sorry to hear of the passing of your daughter. My daughters (Emily and Sarah) were both fortunate to have you as their Kindergarten teacher...I witnessed the love you have for the children you teach--so I can only imagine what a wonderful mother you are...Our hearts will share your grief...and we are hopeful that our prayers will help you through this difficult time. “ Jim, Debra & Nathan...
Please except my deepest condolences..here is a little prayer that I hope will ease the pain;
Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there,
I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there.
I did not die.

“ Debbie, Jim & Nathan, We found this poem for Kasey Ella that expresses how we feel. We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, You did not go alone; For part of us went with you, The day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, Your love is still our guide; And though we cannot see you, You are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same; But as God calls us, one by one, The chain will link again.

*May God grant you Peace and Comfort in the days ahead.
Love Always*

“ Jim and Debbie,

We never had the opportunity to hold little Kasey in our arms, however, we will hold her in our hearts forever!

Over the last few sad days we have seen such strength, tenderness, and caring from the two of you. Not only for each other and Nathan but also for your family and friends. The service you planned was beautiful. The resting place you chose, under the shade of a tree is a place of beauty, peace, and butterflies! If only our love, wishes, and prayer's could make it "all better" for you. However, we know only God's love and time will help heal your hurting hearts. We love you!!
