Kathy and I were like sisters during our early college years. I met her waiting at the bus stop and admired her beautiful braids. From that minute forward we were BFF's. She was in my wedding and we shared many of life's ups and downs together. But after I moved to RI our lives went separate ways which I still regret to this day. I spoke with her a few years ago and I was so grateful she was happy especially with her new family. I pray that she is at peace with all she accomplished and may her memory be eternal 💔

“ As a former employee turned colleague and friend I am saddened by the loss of Kathy. She was always there for me with a listening ear, great insight and quick wit. She was my go-to for so many things work related and personally. She believed in me and encouraged me to stand up for myself and for what is right I was gifted, from Kathy, a snowman which I will hold a little closer to my heart.
I am thankful that she did not suffer long and that I will see her again within the gates of Heaven. Until then, dear friend, thank you for everything and I am beyond honored to have known you.

“ Ron and family - I am having issues writing as I cannot believe Kathy left this world having unfinished tasks. Kathy became my practice manager at RHPN in Birdsboro and taught me many things. Even after she left I still had a mentor that I could look for advice from. She always lead me the right direction and was showing me how to better myself in order to be a better leader. I have a plant that she gave me when she left the office to pursue her new career. I noticed it was not doing as well as normal. This must have been God's way of telling me Kathy was not well. I already think of her when I water it now it will be with sadness and tears. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Jolyn Rissmiller

“ Ron and Family: My heart is breaking along with yours. Kathy was a wonderful friend, colleague, and kindred spirit. She made you laugh with her dry sense of humor, she lifted you up, and she made you "man" up when you wallowed too long. Kathy shared so many memories with me over the short time we knew each other. She shared how much she loved taking her mother to the casinos, and spending time with her. She shared her love of her yearly Cape May trip with her family and the fun she had (and yes, day drinking did occur). Kathy and I shared that our husbands "mansplained" things to us - hers what a milk crate was and its use and me on how to wrap a vacuum cleaner cord. But most of all I will be thankful that she help me to stand up "professionally" for what I deserve and not allow myself to be taken advantage. I will miss my weekly talks which had diminished. I feel that I lost a piece of myself. I loved our friendship and will cherish it always.

Ron and family you are in thoughts and prayers. Kathy was a wonderful person and I am proud that I knew her and got to call her my friend.

“ Dear Rev Ron, In my 30+ years of being a physician, I can sincerely tell you Kathy was the finest office manager I've ever had the privilege to work with. Managerial prowess aside, she daily arrived with a smile on her face and laughter to share. Personally, she was instrumental in getting me thru my last year of practice becuz of some physical issues. I'm gazing at the Seth Thomas mantle clock in our living room you so graciously refurbished for me as a retirement gift. I think of Kathy now each time it chimes. Her office was always cluttered with life: plants and even a fish! Her warmth was always able to thaw the often coldness of a busy medical practice. There are many of us at Birdsboro who will miss and remember her always. May your faith bring you solace during this difficult time, may her memories warm your heart forever. Peace.

“ I will always remember your big smile as I walked you in your stroller so many years ago and more recently the grown up dinners we shared in Cape May. So many pleasant memories of you. I will miss you Kathy. Rest in peace.
