“ My Mom, Bonnie, worked with “Kay” at Keystone. My sister and I remember Kay as a devoted friend and just the loviest person. Walter and Kay came to visit when my mom was l’Il. We kept in touch with cards for many years after my passed. She is dearly missed.

“ Carl, It is with a heavy heart that I send my condolences to you & the family on Kay's passing. she was such a nice person & I was blessed to have her as a friend. As you know we first met at St. Michael's Lutheran Church. We would always be able to chat & laugh together. As time went on she & Walt moved to outside Philadelphia. She worked in Philly & my work took me from Philly to Plymouth Meeting. There were many times we would run into each other on our journeys going to & from work locations. She would always joke & say "We really do need to trade jobs so our commutes wouldn't be so far from home". That's how she was, always full of joy. It makes me smile to remember those moments & we always exchanged Christmas cards. I'll miss her, but she's with Walt now Rejoicing In Paradise. Take Care, Sue Campbell

“ Adam and I spent Thanksgivings with Kay. I got to know her while we watched Adam stress over cooking dinners. She always had stories of the many, many people she had gotten to know. It felt like she was connected to everyone through a friend, relative, or church. Somehow the stories always concluded with, “But really, I don’t know everyone.”

Kay will always be a part of our holidays. I will never forget time spent at her house, her Santa collection, walls of photos, the pickle she gave me to hide in my own tree when Adam and I moved in together and very kindly being told the 20 pound turkey I brought over once to feed three people was “very nice”.
