“ Cindy and Sharon, I am so sorry about your mom. I do remember her so well when I was friends with your sister Patti. I would go to your house a lot back in high school. Your mom was always so nice and kind to all of her daughters friends. We always had fun and I was always welcomed by your mom. Bless you both and your families.

“ Heartfelt condolences to Kathryn's family. I grew up a few doors from the Michinock family on Vanderslice Street. My siblings and hers were all friends growing up and playing games on our street, then school activities in teen years. Whenever Kathryn and I would meet whether shopping or otherwise she would always have a friendly pleasant greeting and catch up on our siblings and families. So sorry to hear of her passing, seems like just a few weeks ago we greeted each other at the supermarket and talked briefly. May memories of better days be of comfort to you all in the years to come. RIP Kathryn.
