“Kaye and I taught in Coatesville for many years together. I will always remember her as a true friend and a warm, loving, giving person. She was a special person and even though we were not in close contact for several years, I have very fond memories of her and our friendship. Please accept my condolences. It is my hope that the support of family and the memories you have of Kaye will sustain you in your grief.

“My wife Gail and I taught with Kaye at Scott High in Coatesville. I was fortunate enough to be in the math department with her. Kaye was the go to for Geometric proofs and any student related issues. The kids loved her and the faculty adored her. We had lost contact over the years but still have many fond memories from our shared time at Scott. Rest in Peace Kaye.

“Kaye was a very special part of our church family at Calvary Bible Church. She was my son, Scott's, preschool Sunday School teacher and his favorite song was the Happy Day Express (Choo Choo!). I worked with Kaye and her class on many Christmas programs and we just had a wonderful time. Even though I haven't seen her much lately, I will miss her lots and look forward to seeing her in heaven.
