“ I just wanted to take time to express my deepest condolences to your family. I've lived in Philadelphia since the summer of 2011. During my time here, I've met people from every neck of the woods. One of the people I got to know over the years was Kenny Long. We all lost an amazing person and an overall great person. Kenny always wanted to have fun, and uplift your spirits. I'll always remember spending time with the guys last summer during Hullmanns's bachelor party in Nashville- talking about life, playing NCAA football, eating hot chicken, bro-ing out, and thinking about what was next for all of us. He had a smile that could light up a room. Gone way too soon. Rest in peace.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of your loved one. When we lose someone we love in death, the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. But remember that the Almighty God sees your tears, he feels your pain, and he will continue with you to comfort and sustain you through this difficult time. Because he cares for you (1 Peter 5:7)
