

Kenneth P. Mitchell Sr.

June 11, 1932 - May 1, 2022

Kenneth (Ken) Proctor Mitchell was born in West Chester, PA on June 11, 1932 to the late Harry Allison Mitchell, Jr. and late Elsie (Proctor) Mitchell Jacobs of Devon. He was called home on May 1, 2022.

Ken married Debbie (Coppedge) Mitchell on January 19, 1952 and had 4 children: Patricia Mitchell Brown McGhee (deceased); Kenneth Mitchell Jr. (Elaine Terry); Mary Jane (MJ) Mitchell Hemmings (deceased; Gregory Hemmings); and Wesley Mitchell. Ken remarried in 2008 to the late Heather Mitchell of Mont Clare.

Ken leaves to cherish his precious memory: Two sons- Kenneth Mitchell Jr., Wesley Mitchell and son-in-law Gregory Hemmings. Grandchildren: Josanne Rubin, Kenneth Mitchell III, Lauren (Brown) Hibbs, Dionne (Hemmings) Harrell, Courtney Mitchell, Lisa (Brown) Ellison, Jasmine Hemmings, Wesley Mitchell II, Adryan Bates and many great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Ken grew up in Berwyn, PA. As a child he was a Boy Scout, had a paper route and helped his mother after school at her job, working for the Norcini family. He had three brothers and a sister, all of whom were called home before him: Harry Allison Mitchell III, Guy Mitchell, Mary Jane Mitchell, and John Mitchell. Kenneth was educated in the Tredyffrin-Easttown school district and also by his father, who fostered his love for driving big machines even at a young age.

He was apprenticed by the Gray Brothers and would go on to become a licensed excavator for over 60 years. He was proud to note that everyone who worked for him was given insurance and honest pay. Ken raised his family in Phoenixville, where he served as a trustee and choir member at Bethel Baptist Church. Ken helped to build the church where it is today, alongside his son, Wesley Mitchell. Ken and his family later moved to Berwyn, where he conducted most of his contracted jobs. Ken and his late wife Debbie were philanthropists and were members of many clubs including: The Phoenixville Area Progressive Club, Kiwanis Club and The Boy Scouts of America to name a few. Ken enjoyed cruise trips with his friends, Quander family reunions, talking shop with construction friends and most importantly, spending time with his family. We will remember his strength, faith and contribution to the Phoenixville community, alongside his late wife, Debbie, both of whom are featured on a mural off of Bridge Street.

The funeral is on May 11th, with a Welcome & Visitation from 9:00am - 11:00am, and a Homegoing Service beginning at 11:00 am at Bethel Baptist Church, 412 Fairview Street, Phoenixville, PA 19460.

Flowers may be sent to Bethel Baptist Church 412 Fairview Street
Phoenixville, PA 19460.

Cards may be sent to Ken Mitchell Jr. 450 East Slocum Street; Philadelphia, PA 19119.

“ We had just eaten dinner at Patrice Proctor's home. Talking about life and good things. How society had changed because Uncle Kenny was a deep thinker. I was always happy to drink from his cup of knowledge. A Gentleman!

“ As a child I remember Ken bowling with his church league, against my father and our church league. Those two were always carrying on and making fun of each other, but they always had respect and love for each other. Will miss having New Year's Day dinner with you at my brother Ed's house. RIP Ken
