Beautiful! The photo's and music were perfect. So precious for those who were privileged to have known Kenny in his short 22 years of life. It is the memories that will keep living on and will someday heal the hurting hearts!

“ I met Kenny once and I'll forever remember the look on his face when he said, "I'm Emily's brother." He had a huge smile on his face. He was seating us for Emily's wedding and you could see the pride in his eyes. His big sister was getting married. It took my breath away when I heard the news and will pray every day that the memories you have of Kenny will ease the pain if only just a little every day.

“ He was that kind of young man that any mother would have been proud of. Kenny was extremely thoughtful of others, very giving of himself and his time, very respectful and an extremely hard worker. It is very sad that he has been taken so young. I remember Kenny from school. I would still speak to him when he worked at ajs... and he came to the house to visit my son Austin. I know my words cannot give you Kenny back. I just wanted you to know what a phenomenal young man I thought he was. My prayers are with you all. God Bless
