

Kimberly Lynn Stanko

November 2, 1970 - November 16, 2020

Kimberly Lynn Stanko, age 50, of Phoenixville, Pennsylvania, passed away on Monday, November 16, 2020. Born on November 2, 1970 in Pittsburgh, she is the daughter of Gloria (Vermeulen) and Charles Stanko, of Phoenixville.

Kimberly was a Plan Writer at HealthNow Administrative Services in Bluebell. She had an immense love for animals and had also been employed by Buds Pet Service in Phoenixville, pet sitting on the weekends. Kimberly was energetic, enjoyed working out and exercising. She was industrious and never hesitated to step in and help others. Most importantly, she loved being a grandmother for the past year, and time spent with her granddaughter, was the highlight of her life.

In addition to her parents, Kimberly is survived by her daughter: Amanda Hozyash, of Spring City; granddaughter: Liliana Alfonsi; brother: Gregory, husband of Maureen Stanko, of Audubon; and nephews: Nicholas and Kenneth Stanko.

Funeral services will be held privately at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to an animal rescue of choice in Kimberly's memory. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Phoenixville. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of this tragic loss of such a young and beautiful person, mother and grandmother. I enjoyed getting to know Kim when our daughters were pals back in the day, and she was always so sweet and kind! Amanda & Gloria: Jeff and I send our deepest sympathy and wishes for comfort during this very sad time. You'll be in our thoughts and prayers for sure...-Joanne & Jeff Jones (Liz Jones' parents)
