“ I am so sorry for your loss. We will all miss Kristin; her smile and laughter will be with us always. I remember her riding Rio and the other horses at the 4-H Shows. Now that she is at peace she can ride again. Go Kristin! My sympathies are with her family in this time of sorrow. Be strong and keep the good memories close to your heart. Remembering the good times helps you get through the hard times.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that the Bible reveals God’s purpose to restore the dead to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. Jesus said: “The hour is coming in which all those in the graves shall hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Revelation 21:1-4. I hope you find some comfort in this promise.

“ A beautiful tribute for a beautiful person with a beautiful soul. As I sit here crying, I realize I'm crying because I love Kristin and I will miss her dearly, but also because I feel blessed to have been one of the people that she touched in her short life. I am so lucky to have had her for a cousin, so much like a sister, and I know that my life is better and I am a better person because we were family. Gone way too soon. I will remember you forever and tell the stories of what an amazing human being you were and how strong and brave. Love you KC. Promise to honor your memory always.

“ REST IN PEACE my sweet sweet sister. Your beautiful spirit free is from the pain and suffering. You fought a long hard battle. You were so strong. And through it all you stayed positive and always had a good spirit. Your laughter will forever ring in my ears. I cannot believe you are gone. My heart is boken but I know you are at peace now with the Lord. And I know you are free. Free to run again, ride again, and sing again. I know you are free of pain. You were my side-kick and best friend. We always found something to make us laugh, even if it was some random raincoat lying along the road and we made up a whole skit on how it got there. You are a bright star and I know you will be in heaven shining light over us. I LOVE YOU SO UNBELIEVABLY MUCH!!!
