“ Kyle was a friend of mine ever since we met in high school in 2013.
He was always smiling and cracking jokes, he was a great friend to talk to if you needed a friend. My sincerest condolences to his family and friends. May he rest peacefully.

“ I've known Kyle since he was a young boy . He would walk with a long stick in his hands and say “I'm Kyle John Radewonkuk ... I'm a hunter “ . I remember A time that his father Eric was helping me hang drywall in my new house. Erica. bought Kyle McDonald's Happy Meal and asked Him to eat in the one room. When he came out of the room he told his dad that he ate everything. Later while I was in the basement I noticed a bunch of french fries on the floor. As I looked up I saw a knot hole In the ceiling room that Kyle was in .Baby you didn't eat all his fries .

John, thanks for sharing this memory! Gave me a chuckle to think of him doing that...shoving those fries in a hole. He was always good for laughs!
