“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your son. Although, I did not know your husband, I wanted to share this poem.

If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane. I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again. No farewell words were spoken, no time to say "Goodbye". You were gone before I knew it, and only God knows why. My heart still aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow. What it meant to love you -No one can ever know. But now I know you want me to mourn for you no more; To remember all the happy times life still has much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today~ A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.

With deepest sympathy of the loss of your husband.

Fondly,

Heather Smith

“ My most vivid memory of Larry was his unending devotion to his family. The video depicted and exuded his love and devotion to his family and friends. I recognized every face in each photo.

I am so saddened and heart broken by your sudden loss. He died way too young, but in his short life span he brought so much happiness to your lives.

*My deepest condolences to all of you,

“ Larry was one of my "partners in crime" at Nationwide. He was great asset to the company and an even better friend to those who knew him, including myself. We kept in touch after he left Nationwide and our conversations always surrounded his son and wife. This is a great loss to all who knew Larry and to all who never got the pleasure of doing so. My condolences go out to his family.

“ Christel,
I never met your husband Larry but when I heard the news of his passing I was very shocked and saddened. In a short time you have had two devastating losses. It's a hard thing for a young woman to go through. Be strong and have faith that family and friends will be there for you if you need them I'm sure. I will pray that you and your son will come through this terrible time with hope for the future. All my sympathy and best.
Gail Howell a good friend of your Mom Irene's.

“ I have the most wonderful memory of Larry: At the end of a play date with our sons Larry was trying to get Forest to leave our home.
Forest was still busy finishing a clay sculpture and didn't want to leave. Instead of forcing him to stop playing, Larry, to my delight, sat down at the table and started playing with clay too! What a wonderful thing for a father to understand ...that even a simple clay sculpture is important to his son. We sat and chatted and helped the boys make their clay dragons. After about 30 minutes Forest was ready to leave and Larry carefully wrapped the clay figures in plastic wrap to survive the trip home. It is a very special man to not only be a father, but to truly understand his child and embrace their interests as his own.
