

Lawrence Jacobson

December 13, 1944 - May 23, 2009

Lawrence R. Jacobson, 64, of Oakdale, NY, passed away on Saturday, May 23, 2009, in the Coatesville VA Medical Center, Coatesville, PA. Born in Brooklyn, NY, he was a son of the late James "Jake" and Frances (Shea) Jacobson. Mr. Jacobson served in the United States Army in the USAR Control Group Reinforcement as a SP4 during the Vietnam War. He was employed as a master printer and was a member of the American Legion Joseph Kovarik Post No. 1146. He was an avid football and baseball player in his youth and continued to play softball as an adult. He enjoyed fishing and the water. A man filled with humor, he was generous and touched many lives. He was a loving father, grandfather, and uncle who was loved and adored by his son, grandchildren and nieces and nephews. Mr. Jacobson loved the New York Mets. He idolized Gil Hodges, the ex player of the Brooklyn Dodgers who managed the NY Mets to the 1969 World Series. Whenever Mr. Jacobson played sports, he was sure to wear Gil's #14. Mr. Jacobson is survived by his son, Lawrence B., husband of Lisa-Marie Jacobson, of Nesconset, NY, brother, Robert Jacobson and two grand-daughters, Mariella and Kaitlyn. He was preceded in death by his sister Dorothy Kuron. Relatives and friends are invited to attend his service at the Calverton National Cemetery, 210 Princeton Blvd, Calverton, NY, on Monday, June 8, 2009, at 11:30 a.m. Memorial gifts may be made in his memory to the American Legion Joseph Kovarik Post No. 1146, 826 Hubal Street, Bohemia, NY, 11716. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

Tribute Wall

PS

“ My Deepest Sorrow for my cousin Larry. For such a good man has passed. For all of my childhood there was no other father figure that touched my life more than my (UNCLE LARRY). What a Wonderful and Loving memory I will always have.....

PEGGY SUE KELLER - SNUIE@AOL.COM - July 19, 2013 at 08:37 AM