“ From all of us at Providence Place, our deepest condolences. Lawrence was one of our first residents and quickly became the mayor of the community as a result of his kindness, warmth, and ability to talk to anyone and make them feel at home. We will miss his daily strolls past our office window. Always with a wave and a "hello girls!" We'll always remember the time one of our aides went into Lawrence's apartment and found him on the floor. Fearing that something had happened the aide quickly asked, "Lawrence, are you okay??" To which Lawrence replied, "Yeah, just doing some push-ups!" He was 90 years old at the time, and we can assure you that he was the ONLY 90 year old we know of that has been found on the floor doing push-ups. A proud, strong, family man. Never afraid to share his emotions when it came to his family. We are so thankful we had the opportunity to share our "home" with him and have the time to get to know this truly special man.

XO Stacey Allen and everyone at Providence Place
