“ Dear Leanne Blank, I noticed through the newspaper obituaries that your family has just suffered the loss of your mother Leona, on Sunday Feb 13, 2011. Though we are not personally acquainted, I can empathize with your loss as I too loss my mother recently(Dec 27, 2010). My mother was only 69yrs old. However young or old the loss of a mother is very difficult to bear. After my mothers' death I received so many words of encouragement even from total strangers and it was much appreciated. I resolved if I was ever in the position to offer a word of comfort to someone else I would. I wanted to leave you with Jesus' reassuring promise regarding the future resurrection of those those now "resting" in death. Those words are recorded in the Bible at John 5:28,29 and state,"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." What a grand reunion that will be, then tears of sorry will replaced with tears of joy. Until then, I hope this encouraging promise in some small way helps to sustain you. With Heartfelt Sympathy, Mrs. Jones

“ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all. “ Leona was a part of our lives from when we were little girls. She was always there to tell how us how great we were or pretty and if having a hard time always a kind word from her love for Jesus that everything would be ok. A kind word a friendly smile a touch of her hand made everything ok. Her home was part of our homes as little girls growing up on First Avenue. Lots of memories and lots of love. Heaven has gained one heck of an angel today. Love you Baloner - may you rest in peace.
