“ Lesly was a wonderful Mother, Friend and mentor to all who knew her. We camped together all over the Northeast with our families. Throughout the years the Reinish's spent every Christmas Eve at our home with the Woodcliff Lake neighbors. Where ever I moved, Lesly was just a phone call away and when I came back for a visit, it was usually lunch at The Iron Horse in Westwood. Lesly suffered in silence and showed us all how to live a life worth living. May she rest in peace, my beloved friend..... Next April when it's birthday time again, I will pick up the phone, put it back down and go for a long walk and I know she will be listening.
