I was lucky enough to share space with this gentle soul. I appreciate him so much and am sad to hear of his passing. Lew was one of a kind. They just don't make them like that anymore.

Daryl,

I am sorry for your loss of Lew and am sad that I have not connected with Lew and you for quite some time. I met Lew when he was a patient at the Phoenixville Hospital and I was a nurse many years ago. I remember him being very scared and afraid when transferred to the ICU where I was working. I also remember the morning when he was feeling better and not so scared.....the very same morning when his heart stopped and he coded and I was doing CPR hoping for the best. Thankfully he survived and we became good friends. I know he also became good friends with his doctor and that he outlived his doc! I wish that I would have contacted you both early last fall to say hello. I have lived in Ohio for many years now and haven't been back to PA often enough.

My children at the time were very young and he made their day when he stopped by as Santa!!

He was loved by so many...

“ Oh my Goodness....I played with Lew, Steve Finkbinder, and Jim Reichert as a KID. We were all friends thru high school then drifted apart.. Some years ago, Lew organized a dinner with he, Steve and myself. I think Jim had already passed.

Anyway, we only did one dinner but it was wonderful.! Seeing Lew's name warms my heart and my sympathy goes out to his family. Now I am the only one of those kids alive!

*THANK YOU Lew for the fond memories growing up in Royersford.
REST IN PEACE. God Bless your family Dick Toepel*

“ I knew Lew when he was affiliated with Spect Realty, and I later had the opportunity to work with him in real estate continuing education classes at Polley Associates. He was an ever-smiling man with an obvious love of life and a quick wit. He will be missed, and is in our prayers.
