

Lilli Parry

April 1, 1937 - June 12, 2012

Lilli "Lil" B. (Parker) Parry completed her journey in life peaceably at home on June 12, 2012. Partner, friend, loving wife and soul mate to her husband Fred - they lived a lively and exciting life together for 56 years. A devoted mother, grandmother and great grandmother to two devoted daughters: Lyn Faith, wife of Rick Gibson, of LaPlata, MD and Mary Beth, wife of Frank Arnold of Franklinton, NC; two granddaughters: Laura, wife of Ryan Boyle, of Stuttgart, Germany and Meredith Arnold, of Franklinton, NC; two great grandsons: Jackson and Bryce Boyle, of Stuttgart, Germany. Lil grew up in Kellum, NC; graduated from Jacksonville High School and with an Associate Degree from University of Southern Illinois. What made her most happy was spending time with her family. She was a unique person in making a house a home. Having lived all over the world in some nineteen different homes finally settling down in Phoenixville, PA. Lil was the "glue/cement" - the foundation to the family unit and over the years everyone knew how just devoted she was - a very giving person. She excelled in creating children's clothes (ages 1-5) owning in the early years a company with a logo "Tiger Lil" crawling up a tiger lily; coupled with her flowers and garden were something to see; plus she was an accomplished dessert creator/maker. She was preceded in death by her parents and a brother and sister; she has three sisters - Ann Barnett; Bertha Williams and Juanita Taylor; a brother Roger Parker plus many nephews, nieces and cousins. Her family will miss this wonderful lady who devoted her life to them in so many different ways. Cremation by choice followed by a family memorial celebration of life will be held at a later date. Burial will be held privately in the columbarium at the Arlington National Cemetery. Fred's family would like to express their sincere appreciation to her doctors, nurses and staff of the ICU at the Phoenixville Hospital and the LifeCare of West Chester, PA for the care and compassion shown during this difficult time. Please no flowers - however memorial contributions may be made to the Phoenixville Library, 183 2nd Avenue, Phoenixville, PA 19460. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Main Street at Fifth Avenue, Phoenixville, PA. Condolences may be made by visiting www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com

“ To my dear friend Fred, I am so, so sorry to hear of Lil's passing. I have such wonderful memories of sitting in your dining room, sharing good times with you both. You have a bond with Lil that inspires me and that bond will never be broken. She rests in the arms of our Lord, where she is healthy and pain-free, waiting for you to join her later. I send my love and my tears - prayers too. Love you, dear friend!!

“ My deepest and heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear wife and mother. It is especially hard to lose one who always shows you unconditional love. May you find comfort and solace in the One whose love we imitate because He first loved us. God has promised us that if we turn to Him in prayer, He will strengthen and sustain us- Psalm 55:22. The Bible also says; "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."-Psalm 37:29 proving that we will indeed be with our loved ones again right here on a restored paradise earth! I encourage you to investigate these promises so that you too may express faith in them. Sorrowfully and respectfully submitted, Denise Brown Neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com
