“ I'm Andy. I became step mother to Linda and Diane when they were both in elementary school. Diane was an excellent older sister; she always took good care of Linda. They were darling and I love them without reservation.

I have many, many fond memories of our being together and of our travels in New England and Hawaii, and especially, Colorado where their dear friends, ranch hands Red and Patsy, spoiled them. Linda used to say, "I'm not spoiled; I just deserve it!" -- and the way she would deliver that line with those big brown eyes and natural blonde locks! She was without a doubt one of the wittiest and most entertaining people I have ever known.

We had lots of adventures (which I have been painfully re-living this week); too, too many to recount here, but there are a couple of items I want to share: She was a top leader at Fairfax high school and then we two went on a long, long trip to find the right college. We found USC in Los Angeles (I called it The University of Spoiled Children) -- where Linda was admitted into the honors program. She turned it down the honors program and announced a business major one memorable Thanksgiving Day meal!! She could stick to her guns! She also turned down sororities, choosing to have a wide and eclectic group of friends. She could march to her own drummer!

She was articulate and persuasive. Her Freshman year English teacher would read her homework aloud in class as as examples to the other students of how to write. Her papers were always well written, humorous, and very insightful.

She had a fine, strategic mind and a great capacity to love anything or anyone needing love but you all already know that.

“ I worked with Linda at Nutrition Management for ten years. She always had a smile on her face, We always got to work at Collegeville Inn on Mothers Day, and we both swore we would never work another holiday but somehow Easter and Fathers Day rolled around and there we were, me on the register her with the reservation seating charts.

Linda was the biggest dog lover. I know she will be missed by many family and friends and her furry four legged buddies.

RIP

“ It was the summer of 1976 if I remember correctly, when I met Linda and Diane.

My Aunt Andy had married their Dad; Charlie, we, as only 3 teenage girls are capable of; I am sure drove everyone nuts. Joining us on our summer invasion to the Perry house was Charlie#2, the 16 yr old daughter of the Ohlmstead's, Aunt Andy and Uncle Charlie's next door neighbors.

I don't think I have ever had a summer that was more fun, we swam, wrote articles for the Republican Woman's Newsletter in between canon balls and floating around the Ohlmstead's pool. Aunt Andy driving us down to Maryland and shores... It was my first summer on the East Coast and I loved it.

Linda, Diane and Charlie #2 will always be part of my happiest teenage memories.

I thank them, Aunt Andy, Uncle Charlie and Wolflady for such a gift!

God Bless.

Love,

“ Always a trooper with endless energy--Linda was a loyal and dedicated co-worker. I am glad that I had the opportunity to know her and work with her on occasion (although we often found ourselves pulling our hair out trying to make sense of some form or spreadsheet!). My thoughts and prayers to Joe and her family.
