“ We met Loretta many years ago when she started Creative Cooking in a corner of the Quonset hut. We enjoyed her food as much as her warmth and friendliness. We were hooked, and visited often. We were fortunate enough to have had a chance meeting a few years ago after not seeing her for some time. It was a wonderful experience, and we will always remember her ready smile. The world has lost a sweetheart. Godspeed.

“ I believe that just because you are born to the same parents you are not a brother and sister. In fact you are siblings. You must work at being a sister and brother. You did that Loretta with me. Yes we will always be brother and sister. Miss you so much.

“ I never had the opportunity to meet Loretta, but I have met Bob Tyson, Loretta's brother, and I'm sure if she was anything like Bob, she had to be a wonderful person. May God welcome her into his Kingdom with open arms.
