“ I just heard of Lori's passing. We were friend from Moore. I had been in touch with her a while back as friends on the myspace website and was so happy to be in touch with her again. I am not sure what happened but wanted to send my prayers to your family. Lori will always be in my thoughts as a fun, warm hearted, smiling friend.

“ Mr & Mrs. Amo, Michelle and Family,

My heart breaks for you and your family at this time of great loss. Lori was a beautiful person both inside and out. I have never met another person to this day that could light up a room with just a smile. To know Lori was to love her...and I am a better person to have met her. Thank you for sharing your beautiful daughter with me.

Lori,

I will always cherish the wonderful memories that we made together. From the many tring times at work to moving you into your new apartment. The times we just sat and talked for hours I will will always hold dear to my heart. And even though we drifted apart and were starting to reconnect...I just wish we had more time.

You will forever be in my heart...may you rest in peace.

*Love,
Balinda

“ To Lori’s Family and Friends: I am very sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to all of you! I worked with Lori for a few years, on and off again. She always would light-up the office with her sunny personality! I didn’t get a chance to say goodbye when she moved on to another job. I thought there would be time to reach out. I always thought I would run into her somewhere, perhaps at the Mall, shoe shopping of course. I would have told her how much she was appreciated and admired! Goodbye Lori. God Bless!

“ What is there to say? The passing of our dear friend Lori was both a shock and a surprise to many including myself. I've known Lori for several years and over those years have shared both good times and bad times with her. I remember playing sharads with her and Christine on my parents front porch, going to Lee's hoagies to visit her, and hanging out with her at parties. Lori brought a lot of happiness and laughter to everyone's lives that she touched and she will surely be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family and friends at this time of need. May God be with you.

“ Dear Vic, Claire, Michele and Tony,
Our hearts are saddened, and there are no words to express our feelings. Though, we have not seen Lori in several years, our whole family all agree that we have never forgotten her warm smile and gentle manner. Jennifer and James remember her as one of the kindest "old kids" on James Street, and a fun babysitter. A beautiful soul has left this world way too soon. But Lori WAS here, and she loved and she laughed and she danced and she expressed herself through her art, and she was kind and she was giving. Lori was here--- and that is all that really matters. God is with you and He loves you very much.

She was lucky to have so many friends in her life and they were even more fortunate to have someone as wonderful as Lori in theirs. She always made me and anyone else in her life feel special. “ Vic and Amo Family,

I was shocked and saddened to hear of your loss. Scott relayed the tragic news. I was travelling in Israel at the time and was alone. I could not stop thinking of you as well as my own children. I did not stop hugging them when I returned.

I can not imagine the pain you are going through at this time. The only words of encouragement I might humbly attempt is that there are many others that love all of you very much. You must grieve and it is a process. My mother passed almost a year ago and in the Jewish Religion the mourning process is 12 months. After that period at several set times during the year we reflect on our loved ones who have passed in a special service. We do this with a mix of emotions. At those times we say we believe in God and his judgement as we recall the wonderful memories of those closest to us that have gone to heaven. We live for those still in our midst and also for those loved ones who are not. Be strong and take faith in the power of your family and friends who are with you at this time.

“ All my love goes out to all who knew Lori and I give my heart to her family & friends. Lori is now a part of all of us and will live inside us forever. I'm so very thankful that I got to meet, know and share my life with Lori. She was a close dear best friend to my best friends and that meant the world to me. She was always the flame that would light everyones candle inside. Rest in peace my forever friend and we will all see you again one day but for now I will keep you with me always.

“ Dear Vic, Claire, and family,

I was very saddened to hear about the loss of your daughter. Clearly there are no words I can write that would ease the pain of such a profound loss. Just know that my family and I are thinking of you and if there's ever anything you need, please don't hesitate to call.

With deepest sorrow,

Mark

“ Dear Mr and Mrs Amo, Michelle, Tony, Griffin and Raven, Quinton and Relatives~

I just heard about Lori's passing yesterday from an old co-worker and am still in shock and dismay. Lori was such an amazing human being. She had the biggest heart of anyone I have ever met. Although we drifted apart over the last few years, I have never forgotten about the wonderful times we shared and her SMILE! She is an inspiration to everyone she met and makes you want to be a better person.

I am so sorry that I was not able to pay last respects. I will remember Lori always with love and admiration!

Love Audrey and Family

“ Once upon a time on a snowy and windy night (Xmas Eve) we were all tucked inside with happy faces. Age (2) you walked into the room at grandma and grandpa Wells dressed in your pink dress, white tights and maryjanes..THE PARTY BEGIN...WITH YOUR LAUGHTER RINGING EVERYWHERE. Oh, beautiful child thank you for such a precious memory.

“ We do not need a special day to bring you to our minds.
The days we do not think of you are very hard to find.
Each morning when we awake we know that you are gone.
And no one knows the heartache as we try to carry on.
Our hearts still ache with sadness and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you no one will ever know.
Our thoughts are always with you, your place no one can fill.
In life we loved you dearly; in death we love you still.

There will always to be a heartache, and often a silent tear.
But always a precious memory of the days when you were here.
If tears would make a staircase, and heartaches make a lane,
We'd walk the path to heaven and bring you home again.
We hold you close within our hearts; and there you will remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives until we meet again.
Our family chain is broken now, and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
