“ I was so sorry to learn about the loss of my dear friend Lou. We had stayed in contact throughout the years until I left FB last year. I would have surely been by his side.

Lou was quite the fixture at our house on Danna Lane. His friendship knew no bounds.

He was just one of the Danna Lane kids. He started out being friends with my late brother Bruce Rose. Although, he just as easily could be found sitting on the couch with my dad the late James C Rose. I'll never forget the time I came to the house and Lou and my dad were passed out on the living room floor. Neither could be stirred for quite sometime. I later learned that had both eaten a plate of brownies my brother made and left to cool in the kitchen. Yep, Marijuana brownies, and they ate them all !

Lou was quite the adventurer. If he wasn't chasing girls all over Cumberland county he was hanging out with his mostly jobless buddies. He soon knuckled down and took a job with the county Sheriffs dept. Eventually deciding to sell insurance before his move to FL.

He became a good friend of mine during the late 70's. We rode Harley's together, commiserated on the loss of the "Damata" of the month or just shootin the shit. He spent a couple of weeks on my couch in Hopewell during one of his few low times.

I was both happy and sad when he left for FL. Happy at his enthusiasm and sad we would no longer be hanging out. We started conversing again through messenger after I moved to WY. We had discussed several times about visiting one another, I will forever be sorry we did not keep that promise.

On another note.. Donald trump lost one of his staunchest supporters. The ladies also lost an opportunity to live with a truly honorable and awesome guy. I am sure his beloved Sasha longs to be at his side

Forever a part of my heart. Louis J. Totoro true friend. Until we meet again.

*Your friend
Randy Rose*

Thanks for the memories by sharing these pictures and Im so grateful to have stumbled across them after someone shared them on Facebook. I will always remember the fun times on Pearl Street and the many trips to the Cohanzick Country Club at a very early age of my life. Although, I came from a single parent/poor home your family welcomed me with open arms. I will forever be grateful for the kindness that you had shown me and the example of how a true young gentleman should be. May God Bless your family during their time of grief and heartache and thank you Louis for allowing me to be apart of your life even though we were just kids; it meant so much more to me than you could ever know or imagine ❤️

*Sincerely
Tammi Williams*
