“ I would often see Louise in the morning when I stopped for coffee. We would often converse and talk about whatever might be happening at the time in the community. She was just a nice, sweet, loving person, and will be terribly missed.

“ My favorite memory of my grandmother was the last time I saw her. We had the best time ever going shopping for my birthday. We got me jeans and shirts. I never have had a better time ever. She was so supportive on helping em find jean that i liked and fit nicely. She is truly the best person ever. I am so glad she got to stay around to c my sister and I grow up. She taught us alot of important life lessons.

“ My favorite memory of Aunt Louise was when I was very young, working in the flower shop by her side one Good Friday. She ordered a pizza with pepperoni on it. I had a fit because there was meat on the pizza due to Lent. She pulled off every last piece and told me, "God will never know. Now eat your pizza!"

Your niece, Dawn.
