“ Dear Angela, James & Tom, We are sorry for your loss. I read this poem this morning and I would like to share it with you. It's what I think Aunt Lucy would say... I'd like the memory of me To be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of Smiles when day is done. I'd like to leave an echo Whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times and Bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve to Dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave behind when life is done. She was truly a blessed person who left many blessings and memories to all of us. We will miss her.

“ Dear DiOstilio Family, You know we loved your mom and loved being her neighbor and friend for all these years. Of course, we loved her family picnics and horse shoe games with all of you. We were hoping to be there today to offer our condolences in person and say our goodbyes, but something is preventing us from being there with all of you. We send our special sympathies to all. We will light a special candle for her at mass tomorrow. And remember that wonderful smile, and helping Rich to master the Italian language. For me I'll remember her wonderful meals and the beautiful roses she shared with me. Love Patti and Rich

“ Dear Angela, Jim, Tom and family my Love and Prayers are with you all today. I pray God will surround you with Comfort. I'm sorry I can't be there. I will be in spirit. Your mom was so dear to me. My life was influenced by her gentle, loving care. Oh how I enjoyed coming to your house as a kid! When Mom and Dad said we were going to see you all I would litterally jump with joy. Your mom made our visits so special. My last memory of her I just will cherish always. There she was smiling, eating cake at Ann Marie's babyshower. I believe now God helped me get to that shower to see your mom. How happy I was to tell her that I loved her one more time. I can just see your mom with all our dear ones...And the Angels sang, and the Angels sang Alleluia.

“ Angie and family, Your Mom was full of life. We will forever think of her walking around on first friday. She was a delightful person and we were fortunate to have met her. You took such good care of her, and she loved doing things with you. When we first met her we were amazed at her age because she appeared to be many many years younger. We were inspired by her and am sure she inspired many others throughout her life. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers! Love, Barb and Tom

“ We are so sorry to hear of Mrs. DiOstilio's passing. I will always be grateful to have had the opportunity to know her. One of my favorite memories will be when she came to our classroom at Barkley School to help us make Panetonne the "authentic" Italian way. Her smile spoke volumes and it was evident her family was her treasure. My prayers are with Angie and her family.
