She was known for her loving nature and kindness. Selfless and generous, she always gave to those around her and never turned anyone away. Friendly and patient, she supported and cared for everyone in her life. Her calm presence could bring peace to any situation. She had a deep faith in God and often prayed for the people she loved.

Much of her day was spent speaking with family and friends. She loved music, traveling, and dining out (though she could be slightly picky!).
