Bakker, Aidan C. Bakker, Gavin E. Goodreau, and Halia L. “ I worked with Lynn at Phoenixville Area School District and this beautiful woman had the greatest laugh in the world. When it got real quiet in the office and you heard Lynn laugh it just made me smile and smile a little more.

“ I will never forget my "little sister" who has been a best friend and supporter throughout my life. She had a wonderful soul and I will miss our Sunday morning telephone chats forever. My condolences to Eric and Dianna and their families.

“ As I said to my Dad, Lynne's brother, I will always remember the permanent twinkle in Aunt Lynne's eyes - a twinkle of kindness, compassion and joy. She shared her caring heart with me throughout my life, by always being a loving presence no matter how far apart we lived or how much time passed between visits. She and my Dad made sure to create wonderful family memories for me, my sister and my cousins Eric & Diana. So thankful for having an Aunt like her.
