“ My father-in-law was one of the kindest, most gentle people I have had the good fortune of knowing. I wish I could have known him longer and enjoyed his wonderful sense of humor more. You could always depend on Dad for a giggle or two at the supper table....you had to listen to every word he said - if not you missed volumes. I am eternally grateful for knowing him. Thank you, Dad, for passing down your "patience" genes to your son. Thank You, God, for taking him peacefully and without pain.

“ My heart and prayers go out to the family. I am a friend of Fay. I only had the privilege to meet him a few times but I know he was the rock of the family. He was always there for Fay when she needed him. He was a good father. Wilmer and the family will be in my prayers.
