“God gave this sweet lady a farewell episode — a wonderful day to be with her family and say goodbye. That night she went home. Their hearts are broken and overjoyed. Why? Because they love her and will miss her terribly. Because they know that she was a lady of faith and that her future rests secure in the hands of Jesus who had saved her. However, in the middle of this grief-stained joy there is one special touch of grace each will remember until that Day when they see each other again; she heard the mourning dove. It was okay for her to go home. Thank You for your thoughts and prayers during this difficult period.

“ To my Nan. You will be so very missed! You were so special to me. Growing up and you being by my side I will always and forever cherish! So many memories I have. I will never regret being able to spend those last days with you, taking care of you was what I needed to do. You were there for me when I was a child and it was only fitting that I be there for you in your time of need. You can now laugh and sing with the angels Nan. I know you are very happy and at peace. Thank you for being my Nan! I Love You!!!
