“ Dear Lori, Bonnie, Marilyn, and families,
I will always remember Aunt Margie for being a good and gracious lady who loved both Billy Graham and Frank Sinatra. She was a great friend to my mom and dad, especially while mom was in her final days. One could count on Aunt Margie for kind, honest and often humorous words, and as a young child I always thought that she looked so pretty with her blonde hair just perfectly styled. She and Uncle Wayne were quite a fun aunt and uncle who were so proud of their three daughters. My sincere condolences to all of you. God blessed you with a wonderful mother.
