

Margaret J. Garwood

November 29, 1947 - October 2, 2024

Margaret J. Garwood, age 76, Wife of the late Alfred H. Garwood of Phoenixville, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on October 2, 2024. She was born on November 29, 1947, in Little Rock, AR. She was the Daughter of Helen (Winchester) and Elmer Vaughan. Margaret was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother who touched the lives of many with her warmth and kindness.

Margret was a long time member of the First United Methodist Church of Phoenixville, and retired after 36 years at Phoenixville Hospital as a switchboard operator. Her commitment to her work and compassionate nature made her a beloved member of the hospital community. She enjoyed crocheting and loved her grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Margaret is survived by her children, Erin (Joe) Tihansky, Jessica (Scott) Dengler, Tom (Lindsay) Garwood, 4 Step-Children, 19 Grandchildren, and 9 Great-Grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her loving husband Alfred H. Garwood, her parents Elmer and Helen (Winchester) Vaughan, her brothers Dan Vaughan, Rick Vaughan, Dave Vaughan, and her Grandson Paul Hunter.

A celebration of life will be held on October 19 at 10 am, at the first United Methodist Church, 865 Main St, Phoenixville, PA 19460. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc.

Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

“ Dear Garwood Family:
So sorry to hear of Peggy's passing. I have known Peggy since I was born. My early years were spent growing up on Coll Drive right next door to her and her Brothers. Mrs. Vaughn would watch me and my sister many times. Peggy would catch me climbing the apple tree in their back yard to get green apples! :) Many fond Memories. Rest in peace Peggy.
