“ As Aunt Jean’s namesake, I can only hope to be as gracious, loving, warm and welcoming as she was. I visited her a few years ago and had such a lovely time reminiscing about family members. I’ll always remember the family reunion thanksgiving’s at her home over the years with great fondness. I will miss you greatly!

“ I will always remember Aunt Jean as a lovely lady ever to be counted upon to help out. When I was about 17 years old and feeling down about myself (I am never going to marry), she made a bet with me that I would be married before I was 25. She missed it by 3 months!

Though there are many memories, I can only offer a prayer.

A prayer of Supplication; for her immortal soul

A prayer of Admiration; for her familial leadership

A prayer of Appreciation; for hosting many Thanksgivings

A prayer of Thanks; for her wit, humor, and laughter

A prayer of Condolence; for family and friends

I will forever miss you.
