“ To Henry and family,
My sincere condolences to all on your loss. Peggy's smiling face will be greatly missed at all class of 58's affairs. We both lived on Walnut Street in Royersford for such a long time and her friendship will long be remembered. I did enjoy my communication with your son in Columbia, SC where he was associated with the State newspaper, a link that Peggy and I were able to finally identify at one of the class reunions.
Best wishes and peace to all.
