“ Ma...I will miss you always, but carry you each day in my heart. My greatest comfort is knowing you're with Dad again...for me January 18, 2011, will never be the day you "died", but rather the day you and Dad were re-united for all eternity...a beautiful marriage made in Heaven. The "home" you and dad created, will always be in my heart, no matter where I may go. I love you always. xoxoxoxoxo

“ Dear Family of Mrs. Isanski, How sorry I am to learn of Margaret's death! Surely, she went right into the arms of Our Lord, whom she loved and served so well. I will continue my prayers for your dear mother and all of you. In my fond memories are the many times that I passed her house and was greeted by her kind words and great smile. I will never forget her goodness to my Mom who loved her and valued her friendship. May God give your mother eternal rest and may the two MOMS continue the many chats that they started on their way to and/or from Church. Love & prayers from Sister Eileen McGuigan

“ Mom Mom The Isanski household was always filled laughter especially on Sundays/during the holidays. Everyone was always welcome but paid the price of getting picked on during their time with us. We will take all those memories all you will live on forever in all of us. I will miss you, love, Amy

“ Dear Mom from genesis, afterglow: "Like the dust that settles all around me I must find a new home The ways and hopes that used to give me shelter Are all as one to me now But I, I would search everywhere Just to hear your call And walk upon stranger roads than this one In a world I used to know before I miss you more Then the sun reflecting off my pillow Bringing the warmth of new life And the sounds that echoed all around me I caught a glimpse of you in the night And I would search everywhere Just to hear your call And walk upon stranger roads than this one In a world I used to know before I miss you more" Mom, your special Sunday dinners brought us into a family circle; one that will never be broken. When Daddy passed, we simply joined hands with who was left at the table, and then our beloved brother Matthew, and once again, we simply joined hands to keeps our circle and now You've gone to paradise, and we will join hands again to keep our family circle. I know that one day we will all be together at that table joining hands with everyone together again. And then our circle will never change or be broken again and God will be with all of us. The circle totally completed. You will always be in my heart, where Matthew and Daddy already hold a special place. I love you Mom, Lynne Marie s

“ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all.
