“ Marge was a colleague of mine at work and a friend. We will all miss her dearly. Marge was a strong woman and has a bright and funny wit.

She and her family used to rent our place in North Wildwood, NJ during the summer. She and her husband Ed used to say what great times they had there. They also treated our place as their home when they stayed. They would fix anything that wasn't working and also make improvements each year. Truly great souls and people you were proud to know and they made the world a better place to live in!

Our Condolences to the Kabak Family,
