“ My prayers are with the family. It is never enough time to have someone we love and cherish in our lives. Once they have left us the time passed seems so short of a period. Please take some comfront from the scriptures to realize that it is not God's purpose for us to live a short while and die. His purpose was for us to live forever on a Paradise earth. Friend! 1 Cor. 3:9 enemy death going away Rev 21:4 Death no more Matt 6:9,10 Kingdom on earth as in heaven to bring changes for all mankind, government by God and ruled by his Son, Jesus Christ

“ Fred--I was shocked and sadden by the news of Peggy's passing.I enjoyed taking care of her at Sanatoga. Her sense of humor and the side comments and stories she told made my night!!! am sorry that I didn't get a chance to have that Manhattan with her! God Bless you and your family! Peggy--I'll miss you. We'll have that drink when we meet again!Take Care. Christina

“ Grandmom....we miss you so much already. I will forever carry my memories of summers with you and the many great lessons you have instilled in me over the years. Your memory will live in the hearts of myself and Anna and Alyson and their children and their childrens children for many years to come. You will forever be greatly missed. 1 Corinthians 13 is moms favorite bible verse...it describes you and the values you have given us all well. We love you. Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love- 1 Corinthians 13

“ Mom, We will miss you and will work to keep your legacy alive and striving. Your laughter is in our hearts and your gentle ways are in our souls. Your Grandchildren and Great-Grand Children will know the woman who had given your children the gifts of free spiritedness, taking responsibilities serious, the discipline to set goals and achieve them, provide laughter and joy while leading all of those around you to nurture one another and be a true friend. We love you. Karen, Stephen, Anna and Alyson
