“ My condolences to you Margie and your family in the passing of you Mom. Margaret was a great neighbor and friend for many years when she and Joey lived on Applewood Ct in Easton, MD. She continued to be a wonderful friend even when we moved away. Margie you have been in my heart with the loss of Tina and and your husband Dan as well. May the Lord Bless You and help you through another loss. I know your children and their families have worked closely together to take care of the resort and keep the business needs met.
