“ Dearest Tom, Eric, Patrick n' Mark, You are all in our thoughts and in our prayers! Marge will always be a 'special cousin' and 'great cousin'sister to us! She will forever be missed! Marge was like a sister to me! We had soooo many 'heart to heart' talks with one another! We knew how to laugh and cry with each other! We shared many 'inner-garden' thoughts and feelings with one another. We knew how to enjoy life, celebrate life and grieve our losses with each other. She will always have a special place in our hearts...philippians 1:7. What a beautiful video of her life! We will continue to keep you and your families in our prayers. Advent Blessings, Roy, Mary Pat, John Paul and Teresa Marie

“ My deepest symphies to Tom and the boys. I was just looking at the AHA class of 70 list and thought about Marge and wanted to send her a note to reconnect. My heart aches for all her family and friends. I have very fun and fond memories of Marge that I will hold dearly. Mo

“ Dear Tom, Eric, Mark and Patrick Even though we did not see each other for the past few years, Marge was always a good friend. I called Marge when I came home from the hospital with my first born Carlos and found out she had just come home with her first born. Even though the miles seperated us, our love for each other did not. She will always remain in my prayers and heart as will you all. I will miss my partner in all things silly!

“ I so enjoyed the last few years with my sweet friend and have to say that the intense strength and determination in this battle was a gift to all. May she rest in peace now. She was waiting patiently to be with her angels. It can now be.

“ Dear Patrick, Mark, Eric and Tom, I just wanted to say how sorry I'am to hear of the passing of Maragaret. I have great memories of your mom growing up when you lived Minnesota and going to visit Pat in Syracuse. Your mom was an amazing mother how did a great job raising three amazing sons. Sincerly, Brian and Katie Carston Savage, Minnesota

“ The early morning sunlight drenched the rippled surface of the great lake. The shoreline observer puzzled "Why do some of the ripples absorb the gift while others reflect the bounty to others?" Marge, you joyously spread sparkling diamond dust throughout your life. You sang, you danced and you shared your love. May God bless you!

“Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.” “O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?” 1 Corinthians 15
