“ I just wanted to thank Aunt Mary for a great service that she performed for the DePietropaolo family. For about the past 70 years she was the main link between the American branch of our family and the branch that has remained in Italy. Because of her we don't have to wonder about where we came from or who our overseas relatives are -- we already know. Not even a world war kept her from linking the branches of our family together, and for this my generation owes her a big "Thank-you".
