“ To Tom and wife and family.

One of my after “church service” visits was a move to where Mrs. Robbins was sitting. I would seek her and Tom and wife who were with her to have a short casual chat. It might be about gardening, or what was going to be for lunch. Marilee wore an on going smile. She may have had an ache or pain but you would never know it. She exhibited a most pleasant attitude which reflected her peace within. Tom and I, some how, ended up talking about new tomato varieties or a tomato disorder like blossom end rot or the value of pruning a tomato plant. Tom knew how to grow vegetables. Mrs Robbins would listen and shake her head knowingly at what we were talking about. Things for my wife and me changed our regular church attendance to irregular. Health issues. Mrs Robbins reached an age that most people don’t reach. When I read of what her life consisted of it was a life of service. Nursing, organizations that gave attention to youth and others. What more rewarding accomplishments than “others first”.

May the knowledge of her commitment to family, to others and to the Lord give comfort as we all pay tribute to a life well lived. Dave Urner
