“ Our hearts were saddened to hear of Mario's passing. What a wonderful friend, Father, and grandfather he was. We will miss his spunk, and humor, but most of all his company. We were very fond of Mario. God bless you Mario. God bless your family. You will be greatly missed. X

“ Our families shared a deep bond, including your Dad's parents and my parents. They all took a chance to come to the US to give us greater opportunities. What courage and love!. Your Dad was a product of that and I know he treasured his family. He would speak very lovingly of his girls, Fayad and his grandchildren when he would visit for the holidays. He was also very good about calling and asking about how we were doing, especially my parents as they became older. We spoke to him last at Christmas and would have heard from him at Easter. Know that you were his greatest joy. We feel we have lost a family member. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I have a lot to say about Mario since he was not only my father in law not my 2nd father. But that would take really long time. Let me say few things. We met in 1992 when I first started to date Monique in Philadelphia. It was love at first sight for both Monique and Mario. We had a lot in common. We both migrated to the US from Europe when we were around the age of 18. I loved his kindness and his wit. He was very streetwise and a great story teller. He had a big heart and you always knew where he stood. We shared such great moments and enjoyed every second of it. Miss you forever... Zahi

“ So many great memories of such a dear sweet man. He was a class act with a sharp wit and an endearing heart. He had a real personality that didn't fade even in his final hours. God bless you Dad. I will love you forever.

Dear family of Mario, I just now 03/08/2020 learned of Mario's passing. Please accept my deepest condolences on your loss. Mario and I were business associates when he was with McIntosh Inns and I was with Grinnell Fire Protection. We working on many projects together and it was always a pleasure. Mario was always a gentleman and handled tough jobs with ease. He is one of the good guys!
