“ I am so sorry for you and your families. I understand the struggle you've gone through and I understand your pain and your relief. My fondest memories of both your parents are from when we were kids and the reunions were held at your house...quoits for the men, birch beer, peanut scrambles, games, food and more food. I always looked forward to coming to your house for this event. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love Sharon
