“Mrs McClaskey lived a full life and yet there is sadness at her death. There is going to be a time when these things will be no more please look at Revelation 21:3,4 and remember what Jesus said at John 5:28,29 about the resurrection

“December 7, 2010 Dear Family of Mrs. Marjorie G. McClaskey, I want to express my deepest sympathy on the loss of Marjorie G. McClaskey that had died. Whenever we lose a loved one, it is always a sad time in our lives. I have found comfort and hope in this particular Bible scripture, “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...” John 5:28, 29. I have also found comfort in the words from the Bible book of Isaiah 26:19 “Your love ones will live. A corpse of mine they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust. For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop in birth.” Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. I pray that you and your family will draw close to God in prayer, and the Bible promises that, He himself will sustain you.” Psalm 55:22 With Deepest Sympathy, Ritza Sejour

“ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all.
